Strategic resumes are the key to job search success. They are the gateway to an interview and are the primary tool that represents applicants to a prospective employer. Susquehanna Workforce Centers CPRW certification staff provide highly trained professionals to help customers develop effective resumes to highlight their experience, skills and training. CPRW consultation as well as many other services at the Workforce Centers is available at no cost to job seekers.

CPRWs are the career industry's leading experts in the development of strategic resumes. Susquehanna Workforce Center staff members are credentialed by the Professional Association of Resume Writers and possess the CPRW credential that demonstrates their industry knowledge and understanding of the resume writing field, command for grammar, punctuation, spelling and proofreading, and skills in strategic thinking on resume related issues.
